Autumn Term 2017

Please check your invoices carefully for any changes to day and time of classes.

Please keep us informed of any new telephone numbers, addresses.

Thank you for the cards and gifts received at the end of last term - they were all lovely.

Well done to all those who took their exams at the end of last term - you all worked extremely hard. Exam results will be given out in the first week of term.

Please always inform the office if you are not returning to classes or wish to leave part way through a term - just informing the teacher does not guarantee the message getting through to us.

It seems odd writing this in the Summer - but just to remind people about any snow falls in the Autumn Term and its effect on Studio opening. Please check the website www.alexandradance.co.uk for any closure announcements. We will always try to make up any missed classes.
